

ALEXANDRIA SEEKING BETTER FIRE GUARDS

Joint Committees Urge Action on Underwriters' Report.

THE HERALD BUREAU.
H. E. Knight & Son.
1111 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 13.—The joint committees from the city council, chamber of commerce, retail merchants' association and city fire department at a meeting today, in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, decided to urge the council to adopt the recommendations made some time ago by the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

The underwriters want better fire protection for Alexandria. In their report they recommended larger water mains, more water plugs and additional fire apparatus. Since the report was made the city has procured a chemical engine and also has increased its number of water plugs.

It is reported that the fire underwriters intimated that unless their recommendations were carried out Alexandria hereafter would get second-class fire insurance rates, which, it was stated, would mean that property owners of Alexandria would have to pay additional premiums totaling approximately $30,000 annually.

Arrangements were made for a big class initiation the night of October 12, when the degree work will be conferred by the new officers. It also was decided to hold future meetings in St. Mary's Hall.

Mount Vernon Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at a meeting today at the residence of Mrs. George Uhler, elected the following delegates to the annual state conference to be held in Danville, Va., October 4: Miss Helen C. Caldwell, Mrs. John Hinton Foster, Mrs. Cordelia Powell Odenheimer, Mrs. J. Stewart Jamieson, Mrs. William J. Boothie, Miss Carrie Wise and Mrs. Lorenzo Lewis.

The funeral of Mrs. Susan A. Curtin, widow of J. R. N. Curtin, took place this afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mitchell W. Hancock, Braddock, Alexandria county. Services were conducted by Rev. E. B. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

WORLD'S SERIES TO START OCTOBER 7

New York, Sept. 13.—Owing to the closeness of the two major league pennant races and the resultant uncertainty regarding the contenders for world's series honors, members of the National Commission are seriously handicapped in their efforts to draw up a schedule and make other arrangements for the holding of the series, less than a month away.

Although the date for the opening game has been unofficially set for Saturday, October 7, the fact that the commission is unable to determine at this time which clubs will participate is hampering the completion of the many details and arrangements which they wish to clear up well in advance if the series is to move smoothly once the play is on.

This problem, it was announced here yesterday, will be fully discussed at Cincinnati on Friday, when the commission and the club owners gather for the annual drafting of minor league players. The situation may result, it was indicated, in the extraordinary procedure of preparing a number of world's series schedules covering National and American League clubs which have a chance to win the right to compete in the baseball classic.

Only three weeks' leeway will exist at the time the magnates meet in Cincinnati, and it has been suggested in official drafting circles that the only way to meet the conditions would be to adopt this broad schedule plan, probably including Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Boston in the National League and Boston, Detroit and Chicago in the American League.

HOLD WINTER RACING ON FOUR TRACKS

Four winter tracks intend to hold racing. They are Havana, Juarez, New Orleans and Tia Juana. Curley Brown expects to have a track at the Crescent City, but the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association will not sanction a conflict in dates at New Orleans.

Tia Juana, under the management of James W. Coffroth, will start the ball rolling November 4 and announces that it will give $250,000 to horsemen during 100 or more days of the sport.

MASSIMO FAILS TO DEFEAT GARDNER

Tony Massimo, the Italian light heavyweight champion who is meeting all comers at the Lyceum Theater this week, ran into another Tarter last night when he attempted to defeat "Pinky" Gardner, the popular middle-weight, in a half-hour handicap bout.

Gardner stayed the limit, although the visiting heavy-weight had him in many difficult places during the milling. Massimo, the local heavy-weight champion will meet Massimo at the matinee today, while Joe Turner, the middle-weight champion of the world, will be his opponent in an hour handicap match tonight. Massimo agrees to throw Turner once in this time or forfeit $50.

UMP BOB EMLIE HAS NOTHING ON THIS BOY

"I was thinking the other day when Bob Emlie was tendered a reception in Brooklyn in recognition of his having served twenty-five years as umpire, what a wonderful eyesight he must possess," says Dick Rudolph, of the Braves. "Emlie is sure is a wonder, but I don't think he has much on George Jones, Jr., gentleman of color, who checks hats in the big dining-room of a hotel at Saratoga, N. Y."

"Sometimes George will have 200 hats in the racks at once. All straw hats look more or less alike, yet George never has booted one in handing out the headgear to its owner. He calls the right so often that he ought to make an ideal umpire."
